Ceremonies slated at Maplewood cemetery

The annual Fourth of July ceremonies in Maplewood Cemetery will take place on July 4 at 10 a.m. rain or shine. Participating in the ceremonies, which are expected to take about 30 minutes, will be a member of the Carbondale Ministerium and members of the Maplewood Cemetery Association, S.

Robert Powell, president. These ceremonies are held annually in honor of the more than 7,000 citizens of Carbondale who are interred in Maplewood Cemetery, the oldest cemetery in the city and one of the oldest cemeteries in northeastern Pennsylvania. The ceremonies are open to the public.

Perhaps if I call them a few times and remind them of my existence, Mountain View will call me to substitute coming academic year. During 1984-1985 they didn't call me at all.

CONCERTS SCHEDULED FOR MEMORIAL PARK

The city's Memorial Park will come alive this summer with two concerts of live music, sponsored by the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum, Inc., as a public service to the citizens of Carbondale.

The first concert will take place on Sunday afternoon, July 14th, at 3:00 P.M., when the Marywood Jazz Ensemble will perform a concert of popular American music.

The Marywood Jazz Ensemble was founded in 1976 by the Marywood College Music Department to meet the growing demand for the school's performance of historical and contemporary American jazz music. Since its formation, the Jazz Ensemble has given many public performances a year, both on campus and at the Marywood campus in Scranton. On campus, it has made yearly appearances at the Symphony Ball, the High School Institute, the Faculty-Senior Dinner, and the Spring Pops Concert.

Off campus, the Jazz Ensemble has performed at most of the area high schools, numerous community functions, and on WYIA-TV and WYIA-TV.

The director of the Jazz Ensemble is William Weber, whose popular music credits include a stint with the Glenn Miller Orchestra and accompanying orchestras for Tony Bennett, Stevie Wonder, The Supremes, Engelbert Humperdinck, Steve Lawrence and Edie Gorme, Judy Garland, Henry Mancini, Robert Goulet, and Dionne Warwick.

The repertoire of the Jazz Ensemble includes music from Glenn Miller to Chuck Mangione, from Court Basie to Bread.

The second concert in Memorial Park, under the auspices of the Historical Society, will take place on July 16, two days after the Marywood Jazz Ensemble concert. The Crystal Band concert will, however, be an evening concert, and will begin at 7:00 P.M.

The 106-year old Crystal Band was organized in the Petersburg section of Scranton for boys who enjoyed music and wanted a brass band. Today the band is open to everyone—boys, girls, men, women—who is interested in performing good music. The present conductor of the Crystal Band is H. Earl Brink, who has held the band's baton for the past 27 years.

The Crystal Band presents an annual series of indoor and outdoor concerts in various locations throughout the Carbondale area. Last July, the Crystal Band presented an old-fashioned band concert in Memorial Park. Unfortunately, the concert was rained out after about thirty minutes. In December of last year, the Crystal Band performed a concert of Christmas music in Fellowship Hall of the Presbyterian Church.

The Crystal Band is made up of musicians from many of the communities of northeastern Pennsylvania who are interested in playing brass instruments in the band. Many Winters also serves as the Crystal Band's manager.

The Crystal Band enjoys not only a local reputation but also an international reputation. In the summer of 1975, the Band, under the direction of H. Earl Brink, travelled to Romania, where it performed twelve concerts to large and enthusiastic audiences during their three-week, 1,600-mile, concert tour.

Both of these concerts of live music are presented as a public service by the Historical Society. Admission charges will be collected. The public are asked to bring their own folding chairs for both concerts. In the event of rain, both concerts will take place in Fellowship Hall of the Presbyterian Church.

For additional information about these concerts, contact the President of the Carbondale Historical Society, S. Robert Powell, at 717-679-2979.

MEMBERS OF THE MARYWOOD JAZZ ENSEMBLE, which will perform a concert of historical and contemporary American popular music in the city's Memorial Park on Sunday afternoon, July 14th, at 3:00 P.M. This concert of live music is one of two such concerts that will be presented this summer—the other concert will be by the Crystal Band of Scranton—by the Carbondale Historical Society, as a public service to the citizens of Carbondale.
